Company Name: Crown Holdings

Company Sector: Food and Beverage Packaging

Operating Geography: United States, North America, Global

About the Company: Crown Holdings, Inc. formerly known as Crown Cork & Seal Company is an American company that designs, manufactures and sells packaged products for consumer goods. Its portfolio includes beverage, food and aerosol cans and ends, glass bottles, specialty packaging, aluminium caps and steel crowns under their brands- Liftoff, SuperEnd and Easylift. Headquartered in Yardley, Pennsylvania, employing approximately 33,000 people, they are actively involved in providing their regional expertise in over 41 countries. A significant majority of its sales come from its operations in Europe, South America and Southeast Asia. Crown Holdings Inc. was founded in 1892 by William Painter, who invented the crown cap for bottled carbonated beverages. Consequently, Crown Cork and Seal Company was established in New York City after a merger with New Process Cork Company, Crown Cork and Seal Company. In 2003, Crown reorganized as a public holding company. Statistically, it claims to manufacture one out of every five beverage cans in the world and one out of every three food cans used in North America and Europe. Crown Holdings has earned several prestigious awards to its name, predominantly the title of "Quality Excellence" at SC Johnson's 2018 Top Supplier Awards.

Crown Holding's unique selling proposition or USP lies in being the leading global supplier of rigid packaging products to consumer marketing companies. Its mission statement reads, "Building on a tradition of innovation, quality and cost control, we reach ever greater heights as we provide diversified packaging solutions and services to meet our customer needs."
